

In compliance with federal and local law, the Office of the City Clerk - Election Division provides services to voters who require assistance in Armenian, Chinese, Farsi, Hindi, Japanese, Khmer, Korean, Russian Spanish, Tagalog, Thai, and Vietnamese. These services include a multilingual assistance telephone hotline, translated election materials, and multilingual assistance at targeted polling places.

To obtain language assistance over the phone, please call our toll free Multilingual Assistance Hotline at 1-800-994-8683. Individuals that call our hotline can request a translated Official Sample Ballot booklet, verify their voter registration status, and find out the location of their polling place.

In addition, many of the forms, applications, and brochures listed below have been translated and are available for download. For questions, call the phone number listed below.
